FOSTER'S WEATHER BULLETIN

Washington, April 22.—(Copyrighted 1911, by W. T. Foster.)—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent April 21 to 26, warm wave 20th to 25th, cool wave 23d to 27th. This disturbance was expected to average colder than usual with very low temperatures following the warm wave. The storms were not expected to be very severe.

Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about April 26, cross Pacific slope by close of 27th, great central valleys 28th to 30th, Eastern sections May 1. Warm wave will cross Pacific slope about April 26, great central valleys 28th, Eastern sections 30th. Cool wave will cross Pacific slope about April 29, great central valleys May 1, Eastern sections May 3.

This disturbance will cover a period of the greatest storms and earthquakes of the year, and I again warn all. Earthquakes are surely electrical and of the same nature as cloud-quakes or the thunderbolt. We can not locate the earthquakes, but have a suspicion that they may occur on the west coast of Mexico and in Italy.

I do not say that tornadoes will occur during this period, but advise all to be on the alert for them, more particularly in the great central valleys along the line of latitude 40. I can not locate these dangerous storms. It can do no injury for all to be on the lookout for these twisters. The dangerous period covers April 26 to May 6, with April 27, 28, 29 and 30 as being the days near which the greatest disturbances will probably occur.

Large sunspots are expected to form on the central parts of the sun April 30 and during the following five days drift westward, or to the right of the sun's center. Of course sunspots are related to, but are not the causes of, our weather events. It will be of interest to watch the news during that ten-day period about great weather events, sunspots and earthquakes.

May temperatures will average lower than usual in northern sections between latitudes 37 and 45, and between the Missouri and Hudson rivers. Elsewhere from about to above normal north of latitude 38 and along and east of a line drawn from Winnipeg by way of Minneapolis to St. Louis. Also dry near the coasts of the Gulf of Mexico. Elsewhere rainfall of May will be from about to above normal.

The warmest parts of May will include 1st to 8th, 21st to 25th, 30th to June 2. Very cool near May 11, 19 and 27. The most severe storms and other radical weather features of May will occur from 1st to 8th.

Crop weather of May for the Southern states will be fair, except too dry near the southern coasts and in Cuba, Northern Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri, Iowa and the Dakotas will have fair crop weather for that month, except too dry near the Platte river. From the Ohio river to the lakes and from the Mississippi river and the Winnipeg lakes to the Atlantic ocean I expect crop weather to be not of the best quality. Indications are that temperatures will be too low and rainfall deficient.

TROOPS MUST BE STOPPED

Say Insurrectos Before Juarez Before Armistice Will Be Agreed To.

(By Associated Press.)
El Paso, Texas, April 22.—Before an armistice is settled the insurrectos before Juarez say word must come from Mexico City that the movement of government troops has been stopped. It is believed, however, that a truce will be arranged.

Several shots were fired by sentries during last night. The insurrectos are dirty, unkempt and half clad. Despite their small numbers, there are more Americans washing clothes in the Rio Grande than Mexicans.

From the American shore spectators toss things across river to the insurrectos who beg cigarettes, oranges, apples, etc., but United States troops keep a sharp lookout for arms or ammunition.

KITCHEN FURNISHINGS

IT IS not many years since "Kitchen Furnishings" would have been a ridiculous phrase, for at that time there were no conveniences in kitchen furnishings. But today there are Cabinets, Ranges and various articles that help to make a back number of the old adage "Woman's work is never done." Besides the kitchen is the heart of the home; and our health—our most valuable asset, is largely dependent upon this condition. The price of such kitchen accessories is almost nothing considering the steps, time and weariness they save, so we will take real pleasure in having you inspect the "Kitchen Furnishings" in our store.
